Recent News: Improved Access to Daddys Creek and The Obed

Local paddlers, American Whitewater and others worked with TWRA to greatly reduce the decades-long and frustrating closures of The Catoosa WMA that blocked access to Daddys and The Obed during most of the wet season. Although Catoosa will still be closed to all user groups for an 8 week period each winter (the "wildlife rest period"), TWRA has graciously agreed to open the gates for Daddys Creek Go Fast Day, a grass-roots race, group paddle and party that shouldn't be missed. This improved access is a huge win that is ironically and unexpectedly well-timed with the release of this map and the 50th Anniversary of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act. Yet another reason to support AW by making a map purchase! Read more.
